

SPORTING GROUPS AND INDIVIDUALS HONOURED AT AWARDS NIGHT IN ENNISCORTHY CASTLE

The outstanding achievements of individuals and groups were recognised at an awards ceremony held in Enniscorthy Castle this month.

The Elected Members of Enniscorthy Municipal District presented the awards to individuals and teams in their chosen sport or art form for their outstanding successes. The unique awards were handmade by the gifted glass designer and maker Pauline Quigley, Caim, who captured the silhouette and backdrop of Vinegar Hill.

Speaking at the event, Cathaoirleach of Enniscorthy Municipal District, Cllr John O'Rourke said 'This event is a fantastic opportunity to showcase and recognise the achievements in the district. Your dedication, commitment and hard work is shown in your achievements. Congratulations and well done to all.'

In Boxing Oisin Goff, Evan Thorpe, Michael Dolgilevics, Oscar Mordaski, Sean Kelly and Charlie Dixon and Shauna Kearney were all honoured. Sean Nolan was honoured for his achievements in Handball and there was recognition for Ann Redmond, Amy Redmond, Mary Burke, Marie Cash and Marie Kehoe from the Wexford Ladies Darts teams.

Rory Kinsella and Sinead O'Gorman collected the award for Bunclody Kilmyshall Drama Group Drama who were honoured for their achievement in the All-Ireland One Act Drama Finals in 2023 and in 8 Ball Pool there was recognition for Robert Brady, Adam Maher, Ben Doyle, Pa O'Brien and Jim Sludds.

Abbie Doyle and Dannan Long were honoured for their achievement in Athletics. In Horseshoe pitching there was recognition for John Connors, The Legends Horseshoe Club and Michael Redmond, Liam Bond and Paddy Connors from the Woodsmen Horseshoe Club.

Finally, Maria Nolan was honoured for her fantastic promotion of Enniscorthy District through her publishing of three books and two short films and also through her membership of the Enniscorthy Re – Enactors group and her voluntary work with many community groups in Enniscorthy Municipal District.

ENDS