

Privacy Statement for Wexford County Council

Who we are and why do we require your information?

Wexford County Council seeks to lead the economic, social, cultural and environmental development of the county and to provide high quality services at local level. Our vision is for an inclusive County of sustainable urban and rural communities that have respect for their environment, a sense of local identity comprised of a shared purpose and a deep sense of civic pride.

The promotion of a culture of excellence in service delivery remains one of Wexford County Council's core objectives and is included in our Corporate Plan. This quality service includes not only the level and quality of service given to our customers, but also the quality of our decision-making processes, the efficiency and effectiveness of our corporate operations, standard of our facilities and our ability to adapt in an ever-changing environment.

In order to provide the most effective and targeted range of services to meet the needs of the citizens, communities and businesses of County Wexford we will be required to collect, process and use certain types of information about people and organisations. Depending on the service being sought or provided, the information sought may include 'personal data' as defined by the Data Protection Acts and by the general data protection Regulation (GDPR) and may relate to current, past and future service users; past; current and prospective employees; suppliers; and members of the public who may engage in communications with our staff. In addition, staff may be required, from time to time, to collect, process and use certain types of personal data to comply with regulatory or legislative requirements.
