

Wexford County Council
Public Library Service

Data Protection Act 2018

Privacy Statement

May 2018

Who we are and why do we require your information?

Wexford County Council seeks to lead the economic, social, cultural and environmental development of the county and to provide high quality services at local level. Our vision is for an inclusive County of sustainable urban and rural communities that have respect for their environment, a sense of local identity comprised of a shared purpose and a deep sense of civic pride.

The promotion of a culture of excellence in service delivery remains one of Wexford County Council's core objectives and is included in our Corporate Plan. This quality service includes not only the level and quality of service given to our customers, but also the quality of our decision-making processes, the efficiency and effectiveness of our corporate operations, standard of our facilities and our ability to adapt in an ever-changing environment.

In order to provide the most effective and targeted range of services to meet the needs of the citizens, communities and businesses of County Wexford we will be required to collect, process and use certain types of information about people and organisations. Depending on the service being sought or provided, the information sought may include 'personal data' as defined by the Data Protection Acts and by the general data protection Regulation (GDPR) and may relate to current, past and future service users; past; current and prospective employees; suppliers; and members of the public who may engage in communications with our staff. In addition, staff may be required, from time to time, to collect process and use certain types of personal data to comply with regulatory or legislative requirements.

Why do we have this privacy statement?

The Council has created this privacy notice to demonstrate our firm commitment to privacy and to assure you, that in all your dealings with the Library Service, the Council will ensure the security of the data. The personal data you may be required to supply to the Council, or may be collected through other sources (i.e. investigations by Council staff; CCTV, information from other third parties or agents acting on your behalf) is,

- Obtained lawfully, fairly and in a transparent manner
- Obtained for only specified, explicit and legitimate purposes
- Adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary for purpose for which it was obtained
- Recorded, stored accurately and securely and where necessary kept up to date
- Kept only for as long as is necessary for the purposes for which it was obtained.
- Kept in a form which permits identification of the data subject

- Processed only in a manner that ensures the appropriate security of the personal data including protection against unauthorised or unlawful processing.

More detail is available in our Data Protection Policy statement at

Data Protection Policy

Information Collected by the Council

The Council processes and uses certain types of information about individuals (Data Subjects) and organisations to provide the most effective and targeted range of services to meet the needs of the citizens, communities and businesses of Wexford. Depending on the service being sought or provided, the information collected may include 'personal data' as defined by the Data Protection Acts and by the General Data Protection Regulation 2018 (GDPR) and may relate to current, past and future service users; past, current and prospective employees; suppliers; and members of the public who may engage in communications with the Council. In addition, the Council may be required, from time to time, to collect, process and use certain types of personal data to comply with regulatory or legislative requirements. This includes contact details to allow for efficient communication. You do not have to provide all contact details but providing more, such as email, phone, address, makes it easier to communicate with you.

What is the basis for making the processing of this personal data lawful?

Processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in Wexford County Council in accordance with Article 6 (1)(e) of the General Data Protection Regulation, 2016. Specifically the lawful basis for this process is the Local Government Action 2001, Section 78.

How we use your Personal Information

The information we collect and hold on you will be used:

- to enable the provision of an effective Library service
- to fulfil membership requests
- to fulfil bookings for attendance at events
- to inform you of services available from our library service and its affiliates
- to process payments, e.g. fees for services provided to the library, payment of invoices, etc.
- to contact you to conduct research about your opinion of current services or of potential new services that may be offered

Library Membership

All applications for Library Membership are required to provide information on the following categories of data; Personal details of applicant (e.g. first & last name; year of birth, address, e-mail, eircode)

Membership expires annually and can be renewed at the request of the library patron.

Any personal information provided will be treated with the highest standards of security and confidentiality, in accordance with the Data Protection Acts, 1988, 2003 and 2018.

Data is shared with other Irish Local Authority Libraries for the purpose of providing shared library services and a Single Library Management System and other library related business. In addition, data is also shared with trusted third parties who provide support to us and to the Single Library Management System and will process data on our behalf in accordance with appropriate data sharing confidentiality agreements.

Notification of Library Events

We will only contact you if you have given your explicit consent to receive notifications in connection with your use of the service and notify you about library events. You have a right to withdraw your consent at any time by emailing your local library branch. You can unsubscribe from our eNewsletter at any time, by clicking on the unsubscribe link at the foot of the email, this link appears on every eNewsletter we send out.

Disclosure of information to third parties

- We will not trade your personal details with third parties.
- We will disclose your personal data if we are required to disclose it in order to comply with any applicable law, regulatory order, or other statutory requirement.
- The information received from you will be disclosed to a third party (e.g., Mailchimp, Survey Monkey) to allow us to provide you with the service you have signed up for.

Some of these services may be located outside the European Economic Area (EEA). We select these services based on their guarantees in relation to the security measures they have in place, their compliance with data protection legislation and where required appropriate contractual arrangements. By submitting your personal data for such purposes, you agree to this transfer, storing or processing.

ebooks and eResources

Library users who wish to use library online resources Online Resources and Business Information Services can choose to register with various third-parties. We encourage you to review the privacy statements of the online resources you choose to link to from the library service, so that you can understand how these services collect, use and share your information.

Website Visitors

Like most websites, the Council collects non-personally-identifying information of the sort that web browsers and servers make available, such as the browser type, language preference, referring site, and the date and time of each visitor request. We do this to maintain the quality of the service, to determine what library services are the most popular and to provide general statistics regarding use of the Council website.

Cookies

The Council website uses “cookie” technology. Cookies are small data files placed on your computer, mobile or other device when you browse online.

Generally speaking, cookies do not contain personal information from which you can be identified, unless you have furnished such information to the website.

Most browsers allow you to turn off cookies or to customise your settings for cookies. To find out how to do this, see the 'Help' menu on your browser. Please note that if you turn off cookies or change your settings, some features of this web site may not work correctly.

Use of Cookies and Google Analytics

The Council website uses Google Analytics, a web analytics service provided by Google, Inc. ("Google"). Google Analytics uses "cookies", which are text files placed on your computer, to help the website analyze how users use the site. The information generated by the cookie about your use of the website (including your IP address) will be transmitted to and stored by Google on servers in the United States. Google will use this information for the purpose of evaluating your use of the website, compiling reports on website activity for website operators and providing other services relating to website activity and internet usage. Google may also transfer this information to third parties where required to do so by law, or where such third parties process the information on Google's behalf.

Google will not associate your IP address with any other data held by Google. You may refuse the use of cookies by selecting the appropriate settings on your browser, however please note that if you do this you may not be able to use the full functionality of the Council website.

How long is my data kept for?

The Local Authority sector operates under a detailed record retention policy which outlines time periods for which your data will be retained and what will happen to it after the required retention period has expired.

The National Retention Policy for Local Authority Records is under review. The revised Policy will provide information on the criteria for determining retention, archival and deletion or end dates for Council records in all the functions it operates. Links to the Policy will be provided in our Privacy Statement and updated as the Policy is renewed.

Do you need to update my records?

Wexford County Council must take reasonable steps to ensure that personal data we have about our customers is correct and up to date. In addition, if the data held by us is found to be inaccurate you have the right to rectify / correct this.

If you find that personal data that we have about you is inaccurate or needs to be updated (for instance, you may have changed your name, address, contact details etc.) then please contact us so that we can correct it. You can do this by

Writing to us at: Wexford Library Management Services, Block D, Floor 2, Wexford County Council, Carricklawn Wexford. Y35 WY93

Emailing us at: libraryhq@wexfordcoco.ie

Security

Wexford County Council Public Library Service takes its security responsibilities seriously, employing appropriate physical and technical measures including the use of a Staff Access Control system with audit controls and staff training and awareness. We have internal procedures and computer interfaced protective barriers to keep your information as safe and secure as we possibly can. We cannot, however, guarantee the privacy or confidentiality of any information, whether or not relating to you as the user, passing over the Internet via non secured emails.

Your data protection Rights

You have the right to request access to personal data held about you, obtain confirmation as to whether data concerning you exists, be informed of the content and source of data and check its accuracy. In addition, if the data held by us is found to be inaccurate you have the right to change, remove, block, or object to the use of, personal data held by Wexford County Council. In certain circumstances blocking access to data may delay or remove access to a service where the data is required by law or for essential purposes related to delivery of a service to you. Please note that to help protect your privacy; we take steps to verify your identity before granting access to personal data. To exercise these rights use you should take the following steps,

We have a procedure in place for dealing with data access requests which are provided for under the rights of the data subject. These must be made in writing and further information on same is included at:

How to Make a Data Access Request

Right of Complaint to the Office of the Data Protection Commissioner

If you are not satisfied with the outcome of the response you received from Wexford County Council in relation to your request, then you are entitled to make a complaint to the Data Protection Commissioner who may investigate the matter for you.

The Data Protection Commissioner's website is www.dataprotection.ie or you can contact their Office at:

Lo Call Number: 1890 252 231

E-mail: info@dataprotection.ie

Postal Address:

Data Protection Commissioner
Canal House
Station Road
Portarlinton, Co. Laois. R32 AP23.

Changes to our Privacy Policy

If we change our privacy policy, we will post the changes to this page, so you will be aware of the information we collect and how we use it at all times. Continued use of the service will signify that you agree to any such changes.

What to do if you have further questions

If you would like any additional information regarding our procedures and commitment in becoming GDPR compliant or any further information, please contact libraryhq@wexfordcoco.ie