

Wexford Libraries reviews and complies with the following criteria and terms and conditions when choosing copyrighted images/user-generated content to be used across its social media channels and/or website.

In order to be featured across Wexford Libraries social media and website, the copyright owner has the following rights and responsibilities to comply with. These images may also be used by the Wexford County Council for various purposes.

Please read the important terms and conditions below before submitting your images to Wexford Libraries and Wexford County Council.

- You must be over 18 years of age to enter the competition.
- Images submitted by employees of County Wexford would be excluded when shortlisting the images.
- The winners will be selected by an independent jury
- * The image(s) used must be the individual's own work. Photographs of other people must also be taken with the permission of the third party (where identifiable).
- * The photographer should not endanger first or third parties in the process of capturing the photograph.
- * The photographer should not cause the first or third parties to take unnecessary risks or infringe any laws to take the image(s) being used.
- * The image(s) should not be obscene, offensive, indecent, abusive or defamatory.

- * The photograph must not be digitally enhanced or altered, (no cloning, adding or removing features), aside from basic enhancements e.g. brightness, contrast and sharpening etc.
- * Wexford Libraries can retain the right to crop any image(s) at our discretion in a way to fit the requirements on print and social media in terms of overall design and format.
- * The files must be formatted as a JPEG (.jpg) to ensure the quality is not distorted. The original image's highest quality is recommended.
- * Wexford Libraries retains the right to share the photographer's identity with any third party that claims the image(s) submitted is/are violating copyright laws.
- * The photographer accepts that Wexford Libraries may implement editorial control over the photograph(s) and may decide not to allow publication at our absolute discretion.
- * The image is licensed to us to use on Wexford Libraries s website, Facebook, Instagram, Twitter and other social platforms more than one time. If the image is to be used in print and/or digital media which draws newspaper, print/online advertising and PR, Wexford Libraries will be in contact with the author to confirm and discuss details.
- * The photographer must be able to supply an unmarked, high-resolution version of his/her photo for use by Wexford Libraries in any marketing or promotional way. Where an unmarked, high-resolution photo is used by the organisers in print media, credit to the photographer will be printed underneath or on the side of the photo. Where it is used by the organisers on any websites or social media the organisers cannot guarantee the inclusion of any such credit.

- * The third-party identified in the image must be aware that the image may be used in both print and online instances, as well as for promotional purposes.
- * The photographer will always retain full copyright of their own image(s). Materials published throughout Wexford Libraries' socials and website will be published and protected by copyright which by law means that no other party can copy or reproduce the image(s) without the photographer's consent.
- * If sharing multiple pictures, please include each location in which each individual image was captured to ensure we do not repost the image with incorrect or misleading information.
- * You warrant to the organisers that all contributions are lawful and do not infringe any rights of any third party and that you will indemnify us in respect of any breach of that warranty.
- * The organisers accept no liability for any content shared by third parties.
